

WALKER RIPS RUSK ON COLD WAR POLICIES

Strikes Reporter in the Eye

Washington, April 5—Former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker today named Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Walt W. Rostow, a state department planner, as

Two members of a control apparatus in the government which, he charged, directs a soft policy toward Russia in the cold war.

Emerging from the Senate hearing room, Walker punched a reporter who approached him with a question about his relationship with a self-proclaimed American Nazi party leader who was removed by police yesterday.

Thus ended two days of explosive testimony by Walker which left the Senate armed forces subcommittee with many issues to be resolved, including the question of summoning those accused by Walker to answer the charges he made against them.

Raps McNamara Aid

Chairman John Stennis (D., Miss.) said Adam Yarmolinsky, special assistant to Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, flatly accused by Walker of "aiding communism" by his

Anyone who wants to answer Walker will be heard, Stennis said. The subcommittee will consider the testimony against Yarmolinsky, he added, and decide whether to call him if he doesn't volunteer.

Yarmolinsky told reporters that Walker's charges were irresponsible and that his public record was anti-communist. He acknowledged attending, as a youth, some Young Communist league meetings.

Prodded by Senator

The names of Rusk and Rostow were brought into the record only after lengthy prodding from Sen. E. L. Bartlett (D., Alaska), who sought unsuccessfully, to have Walker brand them as "Communists" or "traitors."

Bartlett referred to Walker's testimony that his military career was destroyed by a "control apparatus which will not tolerate militant anti-communist leadership by a division commander."

Walker was commander of the 24th Infantry division in Germany a year ago when he was suddenly transferred to a minor post, interrogated for a month about alleged political activities, and finally given an oral reprimand. He resigned his commission last Nov. 1, returned to his native state of Texas, and is now seeking the Democratic nomination for governor of that state.

"Who Are They?"

"The nation is entitled to the names of these traitors in this control apparatus," Bartlett told Walker. "Who are they?"

"The control apparatus can be identified by what it did in
